MANY MASONIC DIGNITARIES HERE

Third Annual Meeting of Washington Masonic Memorial Today.

FIFTY ARE PRESENT.

More Expected This Afternoon—Officers Will be Elected and Installed Tomorrow Morning.

With 50 delegates present, who for the greater part are grand masters of various grand lodges of the United States, the first session or the George Washington Masonic Memorial Association, which has for its object the erection of a magnificent Masonic temple in Alexandria to George Washington, the first master of Alexandria Washington Lodge, was opened this morning at ten o'clock in Masonic Temple. The delegates began to arrive yesterday afternoon and the reception committee met all incoming trains with carriages and automobiles. An informal reception was tendered last night in the lodge room of Alexandria-Washington Lodge.

When the first session opened this morning about one half of the delegates had not arrived, but they are expected on later trains today. President Thomas J. Shryock, grand master of Masons of Maryland, called the association to order and Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church and chaplain of the association, delivered the invocation.

The association immediately afterward went into executive session. This is the third meeting, and there is a large amount of business to be transacted. Among the important matters which were considered today was the final ratification of the constitution, the reports of the officers and the discussion of the plans for the raising of the funds with which the temple is to be constructed. The election and installation of officers will take place tomorrow.

There was but little business transacted at this morning's session after the meeting had been called to order and it was found that so many of the representatives had been delayed that President Shryock suggested that it would be wise to defer action until 12 o'clock and declared a recess. Before the recess there was an informal discussion on the question of having the grand lodges appoint more permanent representatives so that at every meeting there would not be such a large proportion of new men.

At twelve o'clock the association was again called to order and President Shryock asked all the Virginians to leave the room. During their absence Charles H. Callahan, past master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge and secretary of the local memorial committee and the man upon whom has fallen all the principal work in connection with the formation of the memorial association, was elected an active life member. This position was created especially for Mr. Callahan and is a very signal honor.

A telegram of regret at the illness of James M. Lamberton, first vice-presient of the association, was sent to him at Atlantic City.

This afternoon previous to the reception of the President the report of the committee on title to property was received. This committee is composed of Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville, Judge J. K. M. Norton, Hon. James R. Caton, Col. Francis L. Smith, and H. Noel Garner. The recommendation of the committee was that the association should not be incorporated but that the property should be held by five trustees.

The association adjourned at one o'clock when luncheon was served in the chapter room by the ladies of the Eastern Star.

By far the most important feature of today's program is the reception to President Taft, patron of the association which took place at 3 o'clock.

Business meetings of the association will be held tonight and tomorrow morning.

Among the prominent Masons who are present are the following; J. J. Mansfield, grand master of Texas, J. E. Dillion, grand master of Michigan; W. B. McChesney, past grand master of Virginia; John J. Day, past grand master of Delaware; Eugene S. Weston, grand master of Vermont; Geo. A. Beauchamp, grand secretary of Alabama; John M. Collins, grand secreary of West Virginia; J. Albert Blake, past grand master of Massachusetts; P. K. Baumann, deputy grand master of Virginia; W. L. Andrews, grand master of Virginia; W. L. Gorgas, grand master of Pennsylvania; W. Hayes Laird, grand master of Minnesota; W. H. L. O'Dell, past grand master of Massachusetts; Jacob Lambert, grand master of Missouri; George S. Momert, grand master of South Carolina; F. E. Harriman; past grand master of South Carolina; Julius F. Sachse, librarian of Pennsylvania; J. Claude Keiper, past grand master o fthe District of Columbia; Thomas J. Shryock, grand master of Maryland; Charles C. Holmer, jr., deputy grand master of Maryland; Lawrence H. Lee, past grand master of Alabama; Henry Blanks, past grand master of Georgia; Robert L. Colding, past grand master of Georgia; Judge Moore, lieutenant commander of the Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction; George E. Corson, deputy grand high priest of the United States; F. M. Winchester, grand master of North Carolina; John W. Cotten, past grand master of North Carolina; and W. B. McCoy, past grand master of North Carolina; M. J. Hall, past grand master of Nebraka; and Sterling Kerr, jr., deputy grand secretary of the Scottish Rite, southern jurisdiction.

CHANGE IS WANTED.

Many Bristol Citizens Work for Commission Form of Government.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 21.—Just now the question of a commission form of municipal government for Bristol, Tenn., is a live issue. With the proposition to amend the city charter so as to provide for such a form of government now pending before the Legislature, and with the last Saturday in March set as the day upon which the citizens are to vote upon the issue, there is ample opportunity for discussion, and already there is much inquiry and much speculation. It is not certain that a majority will readily jump for a chance to try the new form of government . However, there is a healthy sentiment in favor of the proposed change.

FLOOD GETTING RESULTS.

Secures Much Money for Buildings in Tenth District.

Clifton Forge, Va., Feb. 21.—For the completion of the postoffice building in Covington, Congress has just appropriated $25,000. Some years ago Congress appropriated a large sum of money for a public building in Covington and a part of it was used for the purchase of a lot though no actual building was begun. This extra money is an indication that work will commence at an early date. Congressman Flood has secured an appropriation for a public building in every town and city in the Tenth District large enough to justify the expenditure. When Mr. Flood became a member of Congress, Staunton was the only point in the Tenth District possessing a government building. Now there is one in Clifton Forge and Lexington, and bright prospects for one each in Covington and Waynesboro.

Orpha Doub, the 18-months-old daughter of Clarence Doub, was scalded to death at Mercersburg, Md., Wednesday. A colored servant placed a bucket of boiling water on the floor and the child went to it and plunged in both arms nearly to its shoulders. The child died soon afterward.

PRESIDENT TAFT HONORED VISITOR

Reaches Here This Afternoon at 3 O'clock to Attend Meeting.

RECEPTION AT TEMPLE

Is Accompanied From Washington By Grand Masters—Stay in City Will be a Short One.

For the fourth time during his four year occupancy of the White House William Howard Taft, president of the United States, paid a visit to Alexandria today and was given a royal reception by the people o fthis city who are much attached to him on account of his many acts of consideration which he has always shown to any project in which Alexandria was interested.

The President's first trip was in 1909, when he visited here during home-coming week and spoke at the laying of the corner stone of the Washington Monument on Shooter's Hill. Two years later he atended the banquet of Alexandria-Washington Lodge given at the Armory where he made a speech. Last year he came to Alexandria on Washington's birthday and joined with his Masonic brethern on a trip to Mount Vernon where a wreath was laid on the tomb of Washington

His visit here was again connested with Masonic matters, as he came to attend the meeting of the George Washington Masonic Memorial Association of which he is the patron. President Taft was elected to this position last year, as he has shown great interest in the movement ever since it was brought to his attention. He was among the first to bcome a life member, sending his contribution of $100 towards the fund through James M. Lamberton, vice president of the association.

The car "Mt. Vernon" left Washington at 2:50 and made the run to Alexandria in 30 minutes. In the Presidential party were Hon. Charles C. Carlin, congressman of the eighth District; Mayor Thomas A. Fisher, of Alexandria, Samuel W. Pitts, master of AlexandriaWashington Lodge, Clarence P. King, president of the Washington Electric car lines, F. H. Treat, president of the Washington-Utilities Company, William B. McChesney, past grand master of Virginia, W. L. Gorgas, grand master of Pennsylvania, J. J. Mansfield, grand master of Texas, and Charles C. Homer, jr., deputy grand master of Maryland.

On arrival in Alexandria the President and his party left the car near the cornor of King and Royal streets, where automobiles were in waiting to take them to the Masonic Temple. There was a large crowd of people on hand to witness the arrival, but there was no great deal of enthusiasm exhibited on the streets.

On arrival in the lodge room the President was greeted by Grand Master Shryock in a few words to which he made a very happy reply. After thanking the members for their cordial greeting he said that he was attending the meeting with a great deal of pleasure because he hoped his coming would help the memorial proposition. He spoke of the life of Washington and declared that the more we studied his life the deeper is the impression made upon us of the duty that we owe to him. He discussed th equalifications that made Washington what he was and said that while he was not a great lawyer or a statesman, he was of such character that all men recognized in him the sincerity of his purpose, his common sense and the courage and persistency that made him a leader.

The President spoke of the little weaknesses of Washington which brought him nearer to us but said that he was no "mollycoddle." In conclusion Mr. Taft said that we ought to be proud of him as the leading first Mason and that the association should receive the heartiest support of all Free Mason. "I am here today, said Mr. Taft, "to show by my presence how much I sympathize with you in this movement."

President Taft. Wearing Lafayette Apron.

Charles H. Callahan, in an eloquent speech, presented the President with the first copy of the book "Washington, the Man and the Mason," of which Mr. Callahan is the author and which was issued today. The copy presented to Mr. Taft was a magnificently bound one. The President accepted the gift and expressed his deep appreciation of the sentiment with which it was given.

At the conclusion of the speeches the President shook hands with those who were present.

Cussing in Iowa.

Profane and harsh words—"Cuss words' in fact—when heard over the telephone, are not a basis for legal damage action in Iowa. This decision of the Iowa Supreme Court was handed down Wednesday in a case in which Nettie Kramer, of Franklin county, sued Henry Ricksmeier for damages on account of "fright and humiliation." The trouble arose over the tresspassing of some of Miss Kramer's cattle, Ricksmeier delivering his opinion into the plaintiff's ears over a telephone wire.

Burial will be in the family vault at Lee Memorial Chapel.

INTERESTING FIND.

Curious Mound Discovered Near Electric Dam on Brubaker's Farm.

Luray, Va., Feb. 21.—Near the electric dam on S. P. A. Brubaker's farm, is to be seen what is perhaps the grave of a red man when that tribe held sway in this valley before the paleface drove these war-like ones from their happy hunting grounds. The mound is on one of the high hills about two hundred yards north of the Electric Dam, and is on land that has never been cultivated within the memory of the oldest inhabitants. Inspection forces the conclusion that the place is either an upheaval of nature or the handiwork of a man at a time which no recor dcan be obtained. On the grave a large number of rocks are set up, showing that it is the resting place of a red man, it was thus marked by his survivors of the bow and arrow and tomahawk tribe. Who can tell? Like the one of Nebo, mountain breeze and river's murmur has pierced the silence for perhaps centuries! Who can tell the story the mound holds or a peep into its depths might unfold?

Additional color is given the idea that this is the resting place of some red man when it is known that it is within sight of the terrible tragedy that was enacted by the red man on George R. Bauserman's farm, where the Roads family was slaughtered by the Indians.

MADERO SAID TO BE IN A NERVOUS STATE

Former President Now Cowering in a Room in The National Palace.

FATE IS IN BALANCE.

Huerta is Quoted as Saying Deposed Executive will Not be Put to Death Family Fear Worst.

Mexico City, Feb. 21.—Deposed President Madero today was a nervous wreck cowering abjectly on the room in the National Palace that is his. He started up nervously at every sound of approaching footsteps and plainly showed no apprehension.

President Huerta early today planned to send couriers out to Orozco, Zapata and all other independent rebels to notify them that they must cooperate in restoring order. By command of President Huerta they will be told that they must immediately unite forces under government officers and become a part of the Mexican army, for the restoration of order.

"In case of their refusal to comply with this order," said President Huerta, 'they will be declared outlaws and exterminated without mercy."

The fate of Madero still hangs in the balance, and his family fears the worst, but President Huerta was quoted as giving assistance that he deposed president will not be put to death.

PRESENTED WITH PISTOLS.

Jas. R. Harman, a resident of Alexandria, Va., while on a visit to relatives in Martinsburg, W. Va., a few days ago was presented with two revolvers, one a beautiful carved colts that shoots a ball exploded by a cap the other was the type of gun used by men in the John Brown Insurrection at Harpers Ferry, W. Va., In 1858. The latter gun was captured by Mr. Wm. Ettinger a native of Martinsburg, W. Va., in a hand to hand conflict with one of John Brown's men on Boliver Heights, W. Va., just above the Forts. Mr. Ettinger's life was saved in this conflict only by his fighting ability as when the gun was thrust in his face the hammer was knocked from the gun by a sabor in the hands of Mr. Ettinger which allowed him to capture both the man and gun. Mr. Ettinger prized these guns very highly but finding a friend in Mr. Harman made him a present of them.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Lieutenant Governor O'Neil of Indiana, caused an sensation in the Senate yesterday when he stopped the Rev. E. R. Henry, of the Emmanuel Baptist Church at Indianapolis, who was making the opening prayer, and said: "Stop making a political speech."

Arrangements are being made the American and Russian Governments for the establishment of regular wireless service across Bering Sea which will insure telegraphic communication between America and Asia at all times. The projected service, taken in connection with the existing trans-Atlantic radio service, completes the circuit of the globe by this means of communication.

"General" Rosalie Jones and her band of suffragists, who reached Elkton, Md., were stampeded at Newark, Del., yesterday when three small boys dropped mice into their ranks. The army halted, shrieked, gathered up its skirts, and fled ignominiously. Two women fainted and others became hysterical. "General" Rosalie Gardner Jones, the coolest of the hikers, mounted a fence post and shouted a command to halt. Her orders fell on deaf ears, for most of the army was moving so fast her voice could not catch up with them. It was some time before "General" Jones could get her scattered army together. "I'd like to be the mother of those imps for just one day," sighed "Gen." Rosalie.

In unanimously adopting a resolution introduced by a local union Thursday representing 6,000 miners in Northern Illinois, the Illinois State Mine Convention in session at Peoria, Ill., provided that the 82,000 miners in the State go on record as favoring a general strike whenever war be declared either by or against the United States. When interviewed concerning the resolution to strike in case war was declared officials of the union said that this action was taken merely as a preventive measure, in hopes of discouraging any proposition which might lead to the declaring of war either by or against the United States.

J. Pierpont Morgan, who is in Cairo, Egypt, admitted last night the seriousness of the attack of illness, the report which started the money markets of the world, and which originated on his journey from America. He hoped the illness would correct itself, but the unusual cold of the Nile at present has aggravated it, and he cannot expect a rapid recovery. Mr. Morgan is said to be showing marked signs of getting old. He is now on an especially rigid diet. He breakfasted at 11 o'clock on toast yesterday. He says he is bored by his confinement and insisted on motoring. Mr. Morgan is expected to visit London in June or July.

An explosion in the barrel house of the Texas Oil Company's plant, at Wagners Point, Anne Arundel county, Md., last night, started a fire which wrecked the plant, destroyed the warehouse of the United States Asphalt Company, nearby, and caused loss which may exceed a million dollars. Hundreds of residents of the little settlement, fearful that the flames would reach their homes, removed such valuables as they could and started to walk through the drizzling rain to Brooklyn. Seeing this, the pastor of the Catholic Church at the Point threw open the building, and many spent the night there. Aged and crippled women were carried to safety. A number of men were injured by the explosions of the oil tanks by being struck by pieces of the iron coverings and other debris carried through the air by the force.

Jealous of his wife, whom he suspected would meet another man, William Boyles, an employe of the Smyrna, Del., Glass Company yesterday afternoon fired three bullets into her. The woman was fatally wounded. The tragedy occurred on the street. The husband would have killed his wife outright but for the action of Albert Price, a negro preacher, risking his own life. The minister rushed between the husband and the woman and compelled the man to cease firing. The couple have four children.

MORGAN WAS IN A SERIOUS STATE

Financier Suffered From Stroke of Apoplexy. Another is Feared.

NOT A MARKET FAKE.

Condition Today Not Necessarily Grave—Will Return to New York on Liner Adriatic.

Rome, Feb. 21.—The captain of the Cunarder Caronia today sent a wireless dispatch to the Rome correspondent of the United Press, that J. P. Morgan, reported ill at Cairo last Monday, did make reservations aboard the Caronia, sailing on that date from Alexandria for Naples via Fiume, and that the financier did not cancel his reservations until the very hour of sailing.

This information, corroborating the story of Morgan's illness, followed closely the admissions of women relatives in Rome that Morgan suffered a stroke of apoplexy and that another was feared. Morgan's condition today was not necessarily grave, but it has been established that last Monday, at the time when his New York representatives characterized as a "stock market fake" the story of his illness, Morgan was in a serious condition.

The message from the Caronia's captain added that Morgan said he had decided to wait for the White Star Liner Adriatic, sailing from Alexandria on March 10, and that he would proceed directly to New York aboard her.

Pulaski, Va., Feb. 21.—Last Saturday afternoon a crowd of young people were skating on the "frog pond" belonging to J. C. Ray, North Pulaski, when Hubert Ray while engaged in a game of shinny ventured too near the front edge, which had been thawing all morning, and broke in. His younger brother, Elliott, too eager to rescue him, plunged into the water and caused what might have been a double tragedy but for the prompt assistance of other members of the party, who, with their shinny sticks, rescued the dripping half-frozen boys.

A young Alexandrian, who was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officers Beach and Ferguson for throwing a brick through an upper window of a house in the northeastern section of the city, and defacing furniture was brought before the Police Court this morning. The woman who had suffered the damage did not want to prosecute the offender, and he having plead guilty to the charge and signified his intention of paying all damages, was fined $5 and released.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

J. W. Hough is Elected President of Virginia Organization.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 21.—The Anti-Saloon League of Virginia, in annual session in the First Presbyterian church here today, elected officers as follows:

President—J. W. Hough, Norfolk.

Vice-presidents—P. V. D. Conway, Fredericksburg; William H. Mann, Richmond; W. C. Campbell, Roanoke; G. Bowers, Winchester; J. T. Henderson, Bristol; A. T. Lincoln, Marion; S. Roger Tyler, Richmond; W. Hale, Nokesville; Timothy F. Sheehan, Roanoke; H. E. McWane, Lynchburg, and S. F. Rogers, Onancock.

Secretary—J. D. McAlister, Richmond.

Treasurer—S. P. Jones, Richmond.

Atorney—Thomas Whitehead, Amherst.

G. W. Haxhurst, Falls Church, is a member of the Alexandria committee.

The report of the treasurer, S. P. Jones, shows collections, $18,590.26; disbursements, $18,332.66; balance January 15,1913, $257.60; liabilities, $1,635.77; balance in treasury Feby. 15, 1913, $203.31; liabilities as of Feb. 15, 1913, $1,932.46; value of office furniture, $1,521.

The League's Attorney, Thomas Whitehead, of Amherst, delivered address on "Law and Its Enforcement." The trouble with the liquor law in Virginia, he declared, is that it was spread over $22.50 worth of codes and it took a lawyer to find it. The greatest evil in opposition to enforcement is politics. There are "blind tigers" in Virginia, there are many illicit distilleries in Virginia. There is horse-trading,robbin gbanks and cities are filled with burglars, especially cities that have bar rooms. There is nothing to prevent this except to create a healthy sentiment against it.

This address led to the introduction by Mr. Cannon of a resolution instructing the executive committee of the league to request authorities of schools and colleges to the state to give such prominence to the study of the effects of the liquor traffic upon individual and social life as its great importance demands. The resolution was adopted.

SHOT BY HOTEL CLERK.

Staunton Man is Wounded by Wife's Man's Companion.

Staunton, Va., Feb. 21.—Luther B. Bosserman, a merchant here, lies in a critical condition in a hospital as the result of bullet wounds inflicted by A. D. Worth, a hotel clerk, during a struggle at the Bosserman home, in the presence of Mrs. Bosserman. Worth asserts that Bosserman attempted to mutilate him.

Worth and Mrs. Bosserman were arrested and jailed, the latter as an accesory to the shooting.

Bosserman went to his home at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and found Worth alone with Mrs. Bosserman. Worth fired four shots at the husband, two of which took effect, one in the chest over the heart, and one in the groin. Bosserman grappled with his assailant, took his revolver away from him and ordered him from the house.

The wounded man then summoned a physician by telephone and was taken to a hospital.

Worth, after the shooting returned to the hotel where he is employed. He was arrested, and later Mrs. Bosserman was taken into custody.

Worth's story is that Bosserman, when he found Mrs. Bosserman and Worth alone, attacked him and attempted to mutilate him. In struggle that ensued, the hotel clerk says, he shot without realizing what he was doing. Worth bears marks which tend to confirm his story.

Worth, who is unmarried, is a son of Charles Worth, a farmer, who lives near Waynesboro. His employes say Mrs. Bosserman frequently called him over the telephone in the absence of her husband.

Last week Bosserman, in a vain endeavor to save the life of his only child, a daughter submitted to a blood transfusion operation. It is feared that owing to Bosserman's weakened condition from the loss of blood from the operation his wounds may prove fatal.

He is prominent in Staunton, conducting a prosperous hay and feed business, and belonging to the volunteer firemen and several beneficial and social organizations.

The Naval appropriation Bill carrying $146,000,000 and authorizing two battleships, one transport, one supply ship, six torpedo boat destroyers and four submarines was reported late yesterday to the House.

REVENUE FROM CITIES.

Auditor Moore Completes Report for Year—Interesting Summary.

Richmond, Feb. 21.—Expressing the confident expectation that there will again be a surplus in the treasury of the state at the close of the fiscal year ending September 30, 1913, the report of State Auditor Moore covering the fiscal year which ended September 30, 1912, has come from the printer.

An interesting feature of the report is a tabulated statement showing the amount received from each county and city and also tht amount paid each county and city. It is shown that the nineteen cities paid in a total of $1,804,464.04, not one of them proving a burden to the Commonwealth, as was the case with a number of counties. In fact, the loss in the latter instance was $592,268.37, as against a gain of $298,546.30, thus showing that the cities are carrying far more than their share of the burden. The total in gain from cities and counties aggregates $2,103,,010.34, compared with a loss of $592,268.37 from the deliquent counties.

The report says:

"The amount received into the treasury of the State on account of fines during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1911, was $85,040.73, and the amount received into the treasury of the state on account of fines during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1912, was $107,421.93.

DEATH OF COL. THOMAS.

Succumbs to Attack of Heart Disease At Berryville, Va.

Winchester, Va., Feb. 21.—Col. Samuel S. Thomas, who was born in Baltimore, 69 years ago and whose father, Keifer Thomas, was a prominent merchant, was stricken with heart disease Tuesday and died Wednesday night at Berryville, Clarke county, where his family is spending the winter, their large estate, Arcadia, near the Shenandoah river in that county, being closed.

Colonel Thomas was one of the wealthiest residents of Clarke county and had lived there 40 years. He served on the staff of Ex-Governor J. Hoge Tyler, of Virginia.

DODGES PATRONAGE QUESTION

Ninth Virginia Committee Finds Aspirants Numerous.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 21.—The Ninth Virginia District Democratic Committee, called to meet here yesterday to frame recommendations for federal appointments, abandoned the plan when it found itself confronted with a host of candidates, each unwilling to be set aside.

Each of the candidates was backed by influential Democrats, and the candidates and their backers made it plain that any adverse decision by the committee would be resented. When the committee had sized up the situation, it decided that it would be bad policy to make any recommendations, and resolved neither to indicate what Federal positions should be awarded in the district, nor what one should be favored with federal patronage.

Albert Bruckner, a bass horn player in the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, yesterday, in an intermission of the concert at the New National Theatre, Washington, was stricken by apoplexy. Associates who noticed his condition carried him off of the stage and into the wings where he collapsed. He died four hours afterwards.

PLOT TO KILL SHERIFF.

Prisoners in Accomac Jail Foiled by Informer.

Cape Charles, Va., Feb. 21.—The life of Sheriff Benjamin Nelson, of Accomac county, who also acts as jailor at the Accomac jail, was probably saved Thursday when a plot to kill him was revealed by Sidney Adams, a prisoner, occupying a cell next to the one in which the insigators of the plot were confined. When the sheriff started to bring a meal to the prisoners yesterday he was confronted by Ames, who was a trusty, and had been allowed the freedom of the corridor, and informed of the murderous intention of the other prisoners.

According to his story, Major Dalby, Linwood Smith and five other inmates of the jail were to pounce upon the sheriff as he entered, take his revolver, and after dealing him a deadly blow, make their escape. Smith and Dalby, the chief conspirators, broke out of Eastville jail several weeks ago and were caught after a chase and brought to Accomac jail to await trial. Both are charged with murder. After their plot became known they were placed in the dungeon cell. All are colored.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply.

A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a lotion.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and Glycerine, ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clear; ask us.

LAST ECHO OF RETROCESSION.

President Taft last night attended a banquet of business and professional men at the Hotel Willard in Washington. His speech on the occasion makes several columns in Washington papers.

Among other things Mr. Taft turned his eyes again upon Virginia territory south of the capital city, embracing Alexandria city and county, and reiterated what he has from time to time said since he entered the White House that the area should be again a part of the District of Columbia.

The President apporved the proposed memorial bridge connecting Washington with Virginia, and declared that the District of Columbia should get back from the Old Dominion the territory across the Potomac originally contained in that district, but ceded back to Virginia years ago.

"I would very much like to direct a lawsuit to test the question whether the retrocession of half the District of Columbia to Virginia was within the power of Congress," said the President.

Mr. Taft's words are suggestive. He General can find a substantial reason for hoping for any success from such a suit, he will direct action before he leaves office. Whether this be the method, or some other, the President added that the District must reacquire from Virginia that land which was formerly in its possession, in order that it may have room to grow.

Mr. Taft's words are suggestiv. He says "that if the Attorney General can find a substantial reason for hoping for any success from such a suit, he will direct action before he leaves office."

The Attorney General may find it difficult to find stable ground upon which to base a suit, according to the best legal talent. A well-known and able Alexandria lawyer in referring today to this latest suggestion from the President, said it would be a difficult matter to find grounds upon which to start a suit for retrocession. He called attention to the fact that the constitution did not provide for an area of ten square miles for the use of the federal government. It said the area should not exceed ten miles, not that it should be of such dimensions. The government, he said, often sold useless forts and other property, and in the case of Alexandria city and county, it found it had more ground for governmental purposes than needed, and merely turned it over to the state from which it had been taken.

A committee of pastors in St. Joseph, Mo., church, will attend a prize fight here tonight to obtain information to lay before the grand jury.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

The Town Bore.

You somehow like to meet a man
who's got some pleasant thing
To say about the folks he meets each day,
Who likes to pay a compliment that doesn't bear a sting,
Whose talk is real neighborly and gay.

And it is mighty comforting that most men have this mood,
And want to say the thing they know is square,
Or, leastwise, if about a man they can't say something good,
They don't grab every chance to be unfair.

And yet it's downright sorrowful to find right in our town
Some fellow with a biting serpent's tongue,
Who isn't fair enough to join in
praising the renown,
Of those who climbed the ladder
rung by rung.

Who's disappointed in the part he finds his life has played,
Who's mad because the other fellow's won,
And so he's sneering at the fame he knows his neighbor's made,
And cheapening the good he know's he done.

It makes you feel right sorry when you hear this fellow rant,
And yet you smile and wander to
the door,
For ninety-nine per cent of those who have to hear his chant,
Consider his mad ravings just a bore.

We didn't know what that White Sale was, but there are a heap of things the women folks don't tell the men.

Looks like Mexico might worry along until about Tuesday without a revolution.

Pass along old wintertime, you've
come an' had yo' day,
We've had about enough o' you', an'
this we're frank to say,
We want to see the spring come
'long an' shove you out the way,
And bring us warmin' suns and meltin' showers.

Pass along, old wintertime, you've
done yo' best we know,
An' yet we ain't a-goin' to cry to hear
you're 'bliged to go,
We're longin' fo' the sunny days to see the green things grow,
An' scent the lovely perfume of the flowers.

EXCITEMENT CAUSES DEATH.

Overcome by Joy at Family's Conversion Woman Drops Dead.

Huffman's Store, Va., Feb. 21.—This neighborhod was greatly hocked and grieved when Mrs. Mary Humphrey fell dead last Sunday in Mt. Bethel Church. A wonderful revival meeting has been going on at this church for more than a week, some forty or fifty coming out on the Lord's side. Mrs. Humphrey was standing near the altar and witnessed the last of her children come forward to the altar. Her heart overflowed with great joy,and with this, the most pleasant of all scenes for her, the soul passed to the great beyond.

She was sixty-eight years old.

CAPITAL-CAPITAL ROAD.

Governor Orders Federal Appropriation Applied to Richmond-Washington Highway.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 21.—With several roads competing for the $10,000 federal appropriation, which was in the gift of the Governor of Virginia for the improvement of some state highway, Governor Mann gave this sum last Monday to the construction of the Richmond-Washington highway, believing this thoroughfare to be the most important of any of the many applications for the money.

Before definitely determining upon the exact road to which the fund would be applied, the executive held conferences with several state officials, notably P. St. Julian Wilson, state highway commissioner. It was not learned until today at the office of the governor to which road the $10,000 federal appropriation would be given.

Many prominent citizens of Richmond and elsewhere appealed to the executive to apply the federal appropriation to the building of the Richmond-Washington highway, and it is believed that the action of the Governor in doing this will meet with very general approval. The funds will become available at once.

MUSICAL AT ST. MARY'S.

Splendid Program Presented by Senior Pupils Last Night.

The assembly hall of the Academy last night was well filled with an appreciative audience when the senior music pupils gave their recital which was all that the most exacting music lover could desire; for music at St. Mary's under the direction of four experienced teachers has ever been one of the distinguished features of the school.

Last night's program demonstrated the fact that this year's class is proficient as any of which St. Mary's proudly boasts; and it was no little source of satisfaction to note the marked improvement and interpretive as well as executive ability of the advanced students who (but a few years ago were first enrolled in the music class.

The program which the young ladies ably rendered was as follows:

MUST PAY SERENADER.

Member of Party Who Was Shot Wins Suit For Damages.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 21.—A jury in the Circuit Court has awarded Hugh Porter, a member of the "Skimmerton" party, which in July, 1911, serenaded Walter J. Force and his bride at their home in Livingston, near here, $3,000 for injuries he received when Force fired both barrels of a shot gun into the crowd.

Force was indicted for the shooting after spending some time in jail, while Porter and Walter Levengueth, who also were shot were recovering. A number of the "Skimmerton" party today testified for Porter,while several residents of Livingston corroborated the story told by Force that his bride was nearly in a state of collapse through fright before he fired the shots, as the crowd, it was feared, would break into the house.

MEMORIAL TEMPLE.

They'll rear a monument of stone to
Washington's great name,
To tell the deeds of gallantry, of
valor and the fame
That marked his onward course through life, and left no darkened page,
To dim the path and glory of the patriot and sage.
His memory now is revered by every honest heart,
And his counsels, pure and wise, of history form a part;
His name is still a watchword to nation's far and near Who fight for homes and liberty,and all they hold most dear.
A monument is already reared within a nation's breast
That nation for whose cause he prayed till 'twas by Heaven blest;
Nor will it fall, while there remains one patriot soul to tell
Of how he fought for life's best boon
—sweet freedom—guard it well.
Ye sons of heroes!—'tis a boon ye should not lightly prize—
Hail, heaven-born freedom! shout aloud, and laud it to the skies!
Then, though ye build a temple, of costly marble hewn,
And though his tomb at Vernon's
Mount with sweetest flowers be strewn.
The proudest monument will always be that which is now enshrined
Within the pure and virtuous heart,
the nobly gifted mind.
He needs no cenetopah to tell his virtue, truth and love
They 're graven on our history's page —recorded, to, above.
A heritage to us was left, worth more than sordid gold,
'Tis Independence—sound it forth,
and all its good unfold—
Till every heart responsive beats,
and joined is every hand
In sacred union, to protect our free and happy land.

MUSTEROLE
No Plaster! No Blister!

Everybody knows how the good old fashioned mustard plaster relieves a cold, an ache or a pain.

Your mother and your grandmother always applied it. The plaster burned awfully. But it surely brought relief.

MUSTEROLE is the same remedy without the plaster and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. You don't have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub Musterole on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone!

Not a blister is left, even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff, Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents pneumonia). Millions of jars of MUSTEROLE are sold annually.

It is a staple in the large hospitals. Doctors and nurses use it and recommend it to patients. Ask your doctor.

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, O., and we will mail you a jar postpaid.

MUSTEROLE
WARM—NOT A BLISTER

Doctors tell How Musterole Relieves.

Dr. J. P. Frey, Chicago, Ill., says: "I prescribe your Musterole every day. Use it in all cases of alveolar abscess and inflammation."

VEGETABLES ARE PLENTIFUL.

Southern Grown Varieties are Arriving in Local Markets.

With the coming of spring the market is taking on a different appearance, large quantities of Southern grown vegetables being shipped to northern points, and the Alexandria market is taking its share of the shipments. Florida tomatoes are now selling 2 pounds for 25c, large fine fruit. New cabbage is also fairly plentiful, they sell for 5 cents a pound. Green onions and green peppers cucumbers the market and prices will be found very reasonable. Eggs are about the same in price as last week. Butter has dropped a few cents in price for country make, but the best creamery is still selling at 38c and 45 cents. There are some turkeys on the market which sell at 28 cents a pound. Chickens, home dressed, are not as plentiful as last week, but few spring broilers are on the market.

Meats, especially beef, have advanced $1.00 per hundred in price, dealers, however, are not raising prices on meats, although veal is scarce, and pork is not so plentiful as it was several weeks ago, the warmer weather tending to prevent farm killed pork from being brought in. For the consumer there is very little change in the price of meats, the best beef selling for as low as 15 cents a pound for stew and roast varieties, while steaks and chops, the choice cuts, costs 28c to 35c a pound. Pork shoulders and hams are selling at reasanoble prices, and with the new cabbage on the market they would appeal to the housewife for a Sunday dinner dish.

SAVED FROM FLAMES BY DOG.

Animal, Rousing Mistress in Burning House, Prevents Tragedy.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 21.—But for the fact that she was aroused from a deep sleep by a pet dog licking her on the face, the young daughter of Roderick R. Riley, would have been burned to death in a fire which destroyed the Riley residence near Academy Junction, on the line of the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Electric Railway at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

The origin of the blaze has not been ascertained. The flames spread so rapidly that only a few articles of furniture on the first floor were saved, the occupants of the house losing all of their clothing and personal belongings.

It was due entirely to the actions of the dog, which aroused young Miss Riley, who in turn awoke her parents, that the family escaped. They ran into the chilly air of the early morning in their sleeping garments.

The loss is about $1,200 and there is only a small insurance. Mr. Riley and his family are being cared for by residents of the neighborhood, and so is the dog, which is proclaimed the "hero" of the conflagration.

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia.

I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after effects. Try it. Price 25c.

Truth is simple, requiring neither study nor art. Reputation is not made, though sometimes it may be lost, in a day. Nearly forty years of business experience has proven to John A. Marshall & Bro., that it is healthful to tell the truth. Their success in the shoe business is due to their straightforwardness in business and in strictly clinging to an honest opinion about the goods they sell.

We have been telling you for many days that some morning you would wake up and find it sleeting and raining and generally disagreeable and also discover that you had noot heeded the warning and fortified yourself against ite. Now as the ground hog has seen his shadow we are liable to have many days like this. Secure rubbers for yourself and the little ones—and in getting them, get the best—Gold Seal—sold by John A.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is folly to believe that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any medicine for its treatment. For a number of years an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Tuberculosis, has been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

5323 Girard Ave., Phila., Pa.

"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful-looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity, I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."
(Sworn affidavit) ANNE F. LOUGHRAN.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

Boy Scouts Tag Day Tomorrow.

Boy Scouts Signal ing Party.

BOY SCOUTS TAG DAY.

Tomorrow February 22nd, will be Boy Scouts Tag Day in Alexandria. It is earnestly hoped that everyone will help these boys along by buying a tag. The ideal of the Boy Scouts of America is to give the boy instruction in the things that make for scouting in the form of yarns and stories. In teaching him chivalry, the romantic tales of Knighthood are related to him. He is told how the young Knight went forth to do his "good tour" in his own peculiar way, and through he telling of the story is impressed with the idea that Knighthood and Scouthood are practically the same thing. The Boy Scouts of America seek to supplement the various existing educational agencies, such as the church, home, school, boy's club, Sunday School, boy's brigade, Young Men's Catholic Association. A Scout is courteous. That is he is to be polite to all especially to women and children, and old people and invalids, cripples, etc. And he must not take an yreward for being helpful or courteous.

WEEK'S HAPPENINGS IN FRATERNAL CIRCLES.

Truly this is Masonic week, for there is certainly no busier fraternity, or one having any more interesting events occurring than this ancient society has had and is still having in his city this week. On Monday night a large concourse of members from the two local lodges gathered in the blue lodge room of the Temple, and received instructions in the ancient work of the craft at the regular weekly session of the school.

Tuesday night Martha Washington Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, met in stated communication, and transacted a large amount of business, chief among which was the completion of their plans, so essentially necessary for the happy consumation of the annual banquet of Alexandria Washington Lodge which will be held in the Elks Home tomorrow night, which they will serve.

Worshipful Master Samuel W. Pitts of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, together with his officers, have left no stone unturned, in their efforts to make this banquet an occasion one long to be remembered by each and every one who will be accorded the privilege of attending. By far the most important Masonic function, however, is the annual meeting of the Washington Memorial Association, which begun its session in Masonic Temple this morning, continuing throughout the day and night, and probably tomorrow. Prominent Masons from all over the United States are in attendance upon these sessions, among whom was President Taft, who attended this afternoon's session.

An important meeting of Alexandria Canton No. 1, I. O. O. F., was held in Odd Fellows Hall last night, at which time it was decided to purchase dress suits.

A stated communication of Andrew Jackson Lodge No. 120, was held in the temple last night, at which time there was presented to Past Master Thomas A. Fisher, by Past Master J. E. W. Timberman, a handsome Past Master's Jewel, the gift of those who were made members of the lodge under Mr. Fisher's administration.

There was a large atendance at the regular weekly meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks on Monday night. At this meeting officers were nominated for the ensuing year. The election will be held at their first regular meeting in March.

On last Wednesday Mrs. J. H.Mansfield who holds an official position in the local chapter of the Daughters of America went to Richmond and instituted a new chapter there.

At the regular weekly meeting of Alexandria Hive No. 1, Lady Maccabees, on Tuesday night, Miss Etta England, state commander, paid an official visit.

Deputy Supreme State Commander D. W. Gall Monday night paid an official visit to Alexandria Tent, K. O. T. M., and delivered an interesting address to the local tent. After the adjournment of the Tent the members and their guests repaired to Rammel Brothers' cafe where a bountiful collation was served.

St. Elmo Council, No. 195, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, will tonight present Mount Vernon School, at Potomac, Alexandria county, with a handsome Bible. It is expected that Representative Burnett, of Alabama, will be present and make an address.

Silver Moon Council, No. 26, D. of P. kindled their regular weekly council on Wednesday night, and transacted routine business.

Just so with footwear, you want confidence in the seller and you want it confirmed by the wear of the article. Experience has proven that Marshall keeps on hand the best, and does not recommend them beyond what the wear proves.
